get complete pdf at learnexams.com

Prophecy Relias Emergency Department (ED) RN A Exam |Version 3| (Latest 2023/ 2024) Questions and Verified Answers| Grade A

Q: A 36 year old male presents to the ED with an amputated hand. What should you do FIRST?

Answer:
Apply direct pressure to extremity

Q: Of the following patients, which one needs referral to the closest burn center?

Answer:
Partial-thickness and full-thickness burns involving the genitalia or perineum

learnexams

Q: What are three signs of cardiac tamponade?

Answer:
Hypotension, bradycardia, muffled heart sounds

Q: An 11-year-old female is brought to the emergency department with complaints of excessive sleeping, headache, sore throat and swollen neck glands. The patient has no complaints of pain. On exam, you note a pink rash on her torso. Her mother states that her appetite has decreased over the last week. What is the most likely diagnosis

Answer:
Mononucleosis

LEARNEXAMS.COM